DEDICATION

The pages of the 1968 Le Tresor are dedicated to Danville High School, in hopes that the memories imparted by it will long be cherished by the Class of 1968. But this dedication is not merely to a building of brick and steel, it is to the spirit of Danville High. A spirit made from dedicated teachers, helping to shape us into young men and women, ready to enter an adult world.

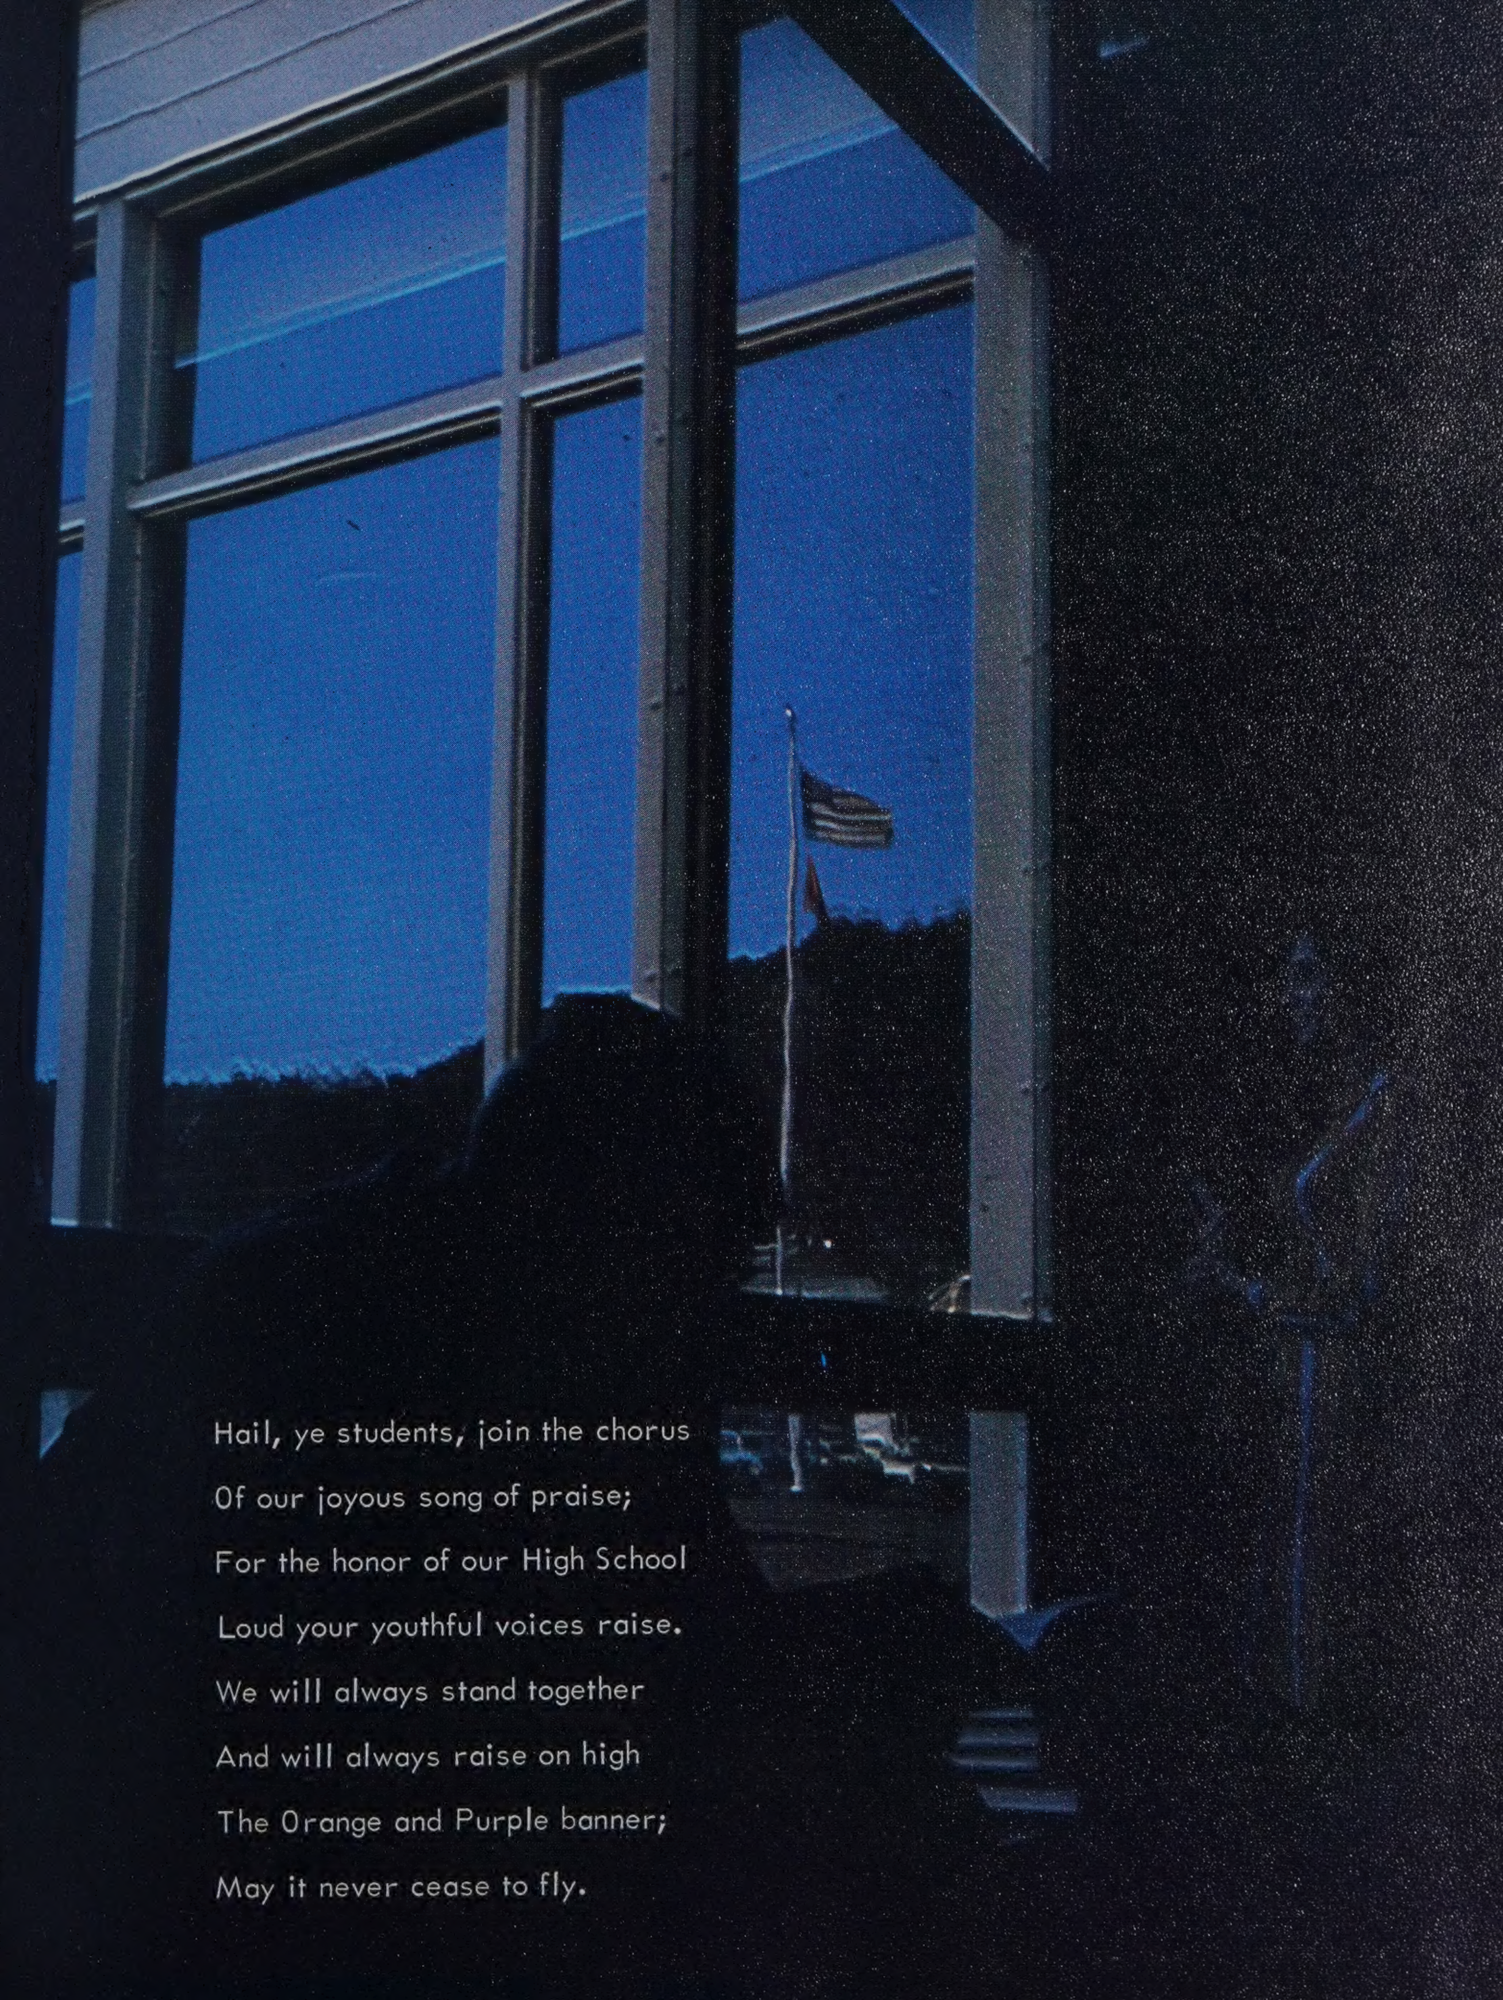
From birth until death, we are searching for a light to give our lives direction. Here, at D.H.S., many of us have met our guiding light.

By dedicating this yearbook to the faculty and administration of our alma mater we would like to say thanks for:

> The golden treasures of information, they have given us freely.
> For their understanding of our intemperance.
> For their insight, the wisdom they have in dealing with us.
> For their divine leadership and direction to duty.
> For men of intellect, their power of knowing.
> For their never ending sense of responsibility.
> For their guidance in the direction of our chosen paths.
> For their life-time influence on our mental attitude and physical actions.
> For men of integrity, their inspirational honesty.
> For their goal setting examples of admirable traits.
> For their honor which holds our high regards.
> For their tolerance, their patience toward us when our ways differ from their own.

Long after the bulb and candles have been extinguished from our memory, we shall still be returning to the memory of the powerhouse that first gave us our enlightened view of the world and clearly showed us our place in it.

Edna May Mettler,
Yearbook Editor
1967-1968



Hail, ye students, join the chorus
Of our joyous song of praise;
For the honor of our High School
Loud your youthful voices raise.
We will always stand together
And will always raise on high
The Orange and Purple banner;
May it never cease to fly.

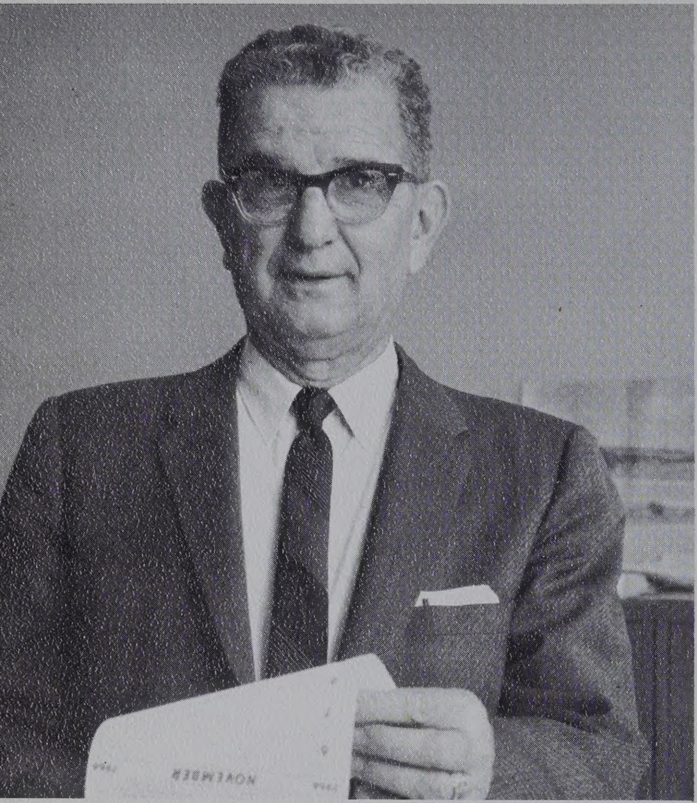
FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION



Mr. Harry S. Ruhl has been County Superintendent of schools for Montour County for the past forty-one years. Prior to coming to Danville he has held various teaching and administrative posts with the Pennsylvania Schools. A graduate of Bucknell University, Mr. Ruhl obtained his M.A. Degree at the University of Pittsburgh and has done further studying at Pennsylvania and Penn State Universities.

Mr. Jack Wanich, Danville High School Principal has been employed in the Danville School System since 1947. Mr. Wanich, who graduated from Bloomsburg State College, was awarded his Masters Degree by Bucknell University, and has completed further studies at Penn State University. Before being appointed Principal, Mr. Wanich taught business subjects at Danville and other school systems in Pennsylvania.

AND SUPERVISION

Mr. Robert Hawk, Supervisor of Elementary Education, has been employed by the Danville School System for twelve years. A graduate of Bloomsburg State College, Mr. Hawk continued his education at Bucknell University, where he obtained his M.S., and at Penn State University. Before his present position at Danville, he was an Elementary Principal and teacher in other school systems throughout Pennsylvania.

Mr. George Gehrig, Business Manager, has been employed by the Danville School System for the past twenty years. After receiving his B.S. from Bloomsburg State College, he furthered his education at Bucknell University, where he obtained an M.S. Before accepting the position of Business Manager, Mr. Gehrig taught Business Math at the Danville Jr. High School for sixteen years.

CLASS HISTORY

In September of 1965, we entered Danville High School as sophomores. We were introduced to Mr. George Cotterall, who was to be our class advisor for the next three years. We elected as our class officers: Dick Cross, President; Rick Seitz, Vice-President; Jane Herrold, Secretary; Barb Foust, Treasurer; and Kathy Thomas, Historian. We also chose the carnation as our class flower, burgundy and white as our class colors, and "The Door to Success is Labeled 'Push'," as our class motto. In the Spring, as our fund-raising project, we sold Breakwater Soap. Having completed our first year at D.H.S. in June, we looked forward to our Junior year.

As Juniors, in September of 1966, we elected Dick Cross, President; Rick Seitz, Vice-President; Barb Foust, Treasurer; Jane Herrold, Secretary; and Kathy Thomas, Historian. On December 9, we presented our Junior Class Play, "Get Witch Quick." This comedy was a huge success, and all our thanks went to the actors and everyone else involved. As our fund-raising compaign, our class sold Christmas candles.

The next event was the most exciting time of our whole junior year . . . the prom. We spent many weeks in planning and hard work to present our "Showboat" on the night of May 12, 1967, as an evening to remember.

In September of 1967 we, The Senior Class of Danville High School, returned to complete our high school education and enjoy our final year as a class unit. We elected the following officers: Dennis Weiss, President; Rick Seitz, Vice-President; Barb Foust, Treasurer; Jane Herrold, Secretary; and Kathy Thomas, Historian. Our money-making venture for the year included the sale of magazines, which financed our class trip to New York City on May 31. Finally, with Awards Day and baccalaureate a part of the past, our big day arrived—June 6, our commencement—our beginning.

Respectfully submitted,

Kathy Thomas, Historian

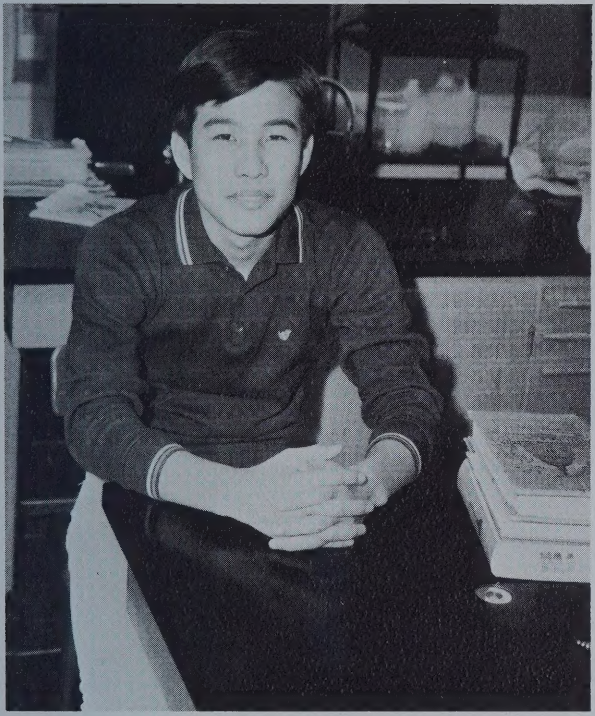
FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT



This year our Senior Class is pleased to have as one of its members Yasunkuni Miyamoto. Kuni, as he is known to his classmates at Danville High School, is seventeen years old and is here as a Rotary Exchange student from Tachima Yoshida, Japan. At his home school, Kuni would have been a Junior at Uwajima Higashi Senior High School. There his subjects would have been Moral Philosophy, English, World History, Japanese Classics, Chinese Classics, Chemistry and Advanced Math. In his home school, he engaged in the activities of the Photography Club and the Judo Club. While here at Danville he joined the Future Scientists of America, the French Club, the Yearbook Photography Staff and was on the basketball and baseball teams.

Upon returning to Japan, Kuni will start school in August and after completing two years of high school he hopes to go to college.

Kuni's home address is:

1-3782 Tachima Yoshida-cho
Kitauwa-gun Ehime
Japan

The officers of the Senior Business Club of the Danville Senior High School have planned many activities for the club this year. In November, they sold Christmas merchandise with the hope of making a profit. The sale was a big success; and with this money they planned a trip to Washington, D. C. in the spring. Mrs. Freda Laubach and the club's 34 members took a portion of the money to furnish the faculty room with new curtains. During National Secretary Week, the club took its annual trip to Bloomsburg College to meet and talk with some of the instructors of secretarial courses.

Mr. Walter McCloskey,
Intramural Coach

On Friday night, September 8, 1967, James Hess, a former mentor at McCuwensville, was christened Head Coach of the Danville Senior High School Football. That night his Ironmen Forces took the field against the Defending Susquehanna Valley Champions from Shikellamy. Displaying the "slot T" and opening up Danville's overall game, Hess's men gave the Braves a rough battle before bowing 20-6. Becoming oriented to the new system, the team showed much progress at mid-season and provided an exciting future for Coach Hess and his worthy associates to look forward to. Aiding Coach Hess were Assistant Coaches: Mr. John Maturani, Line Coach; Mr. Gene Snyder, Backfield Coach; Mr. William Elder, End Coach; Mr. Richard Martz and Mr. Craig Hort, Junior High Coaches; and Mr. Walter McCloskey, Intramural Coach.

1968 LEAGUE

Mr. Walter McCloskey, Varsity Coach.

Mr. Bernard Zaborowski, Junior Varsity Coach.

Desirable reputations are built upon a solid tradition. Such has been the case with Danville Area High School basketball teams. Through the years the Ironmen have become synonymous with winning basketball.

The 1967-68 edition of the fightin' Ironmen posted a commendable 18-6 record, annexed the Susquehanna Valley League basketball title for the sixth time in the ten years that this present high school building has been in use, and lost out in its bid for the District 4, PIAA, class A to Williamsport in a playoff game staged at Berwick.

The Orange and Purple hampered by injuries to key personnel rebounded from a troubled first half to win second half Susquehanna Valley League championship honors.

Overall league title went to Danville when the Ironmen battered 1st half SVL Winner, Berwick to the tune of 58-44 in the championship game played on the Williamsport High School floor.

The Ironmen in the season's opener were up ended by Williamsport 60-46 on the Millionaire's court. Shocked, but not ready to be counted out, Danville reacted immediately with a conquest of Pottsville. The win was costly, however, as Captain Dennis Weiss, 6-6 Ironmen center, sustained an arm injury that was to sideline him for five weeks. With Weiss out of the Lineup, Danville lost a close one to Millville and limped by Coughlin without Pete Dimmick who sat the contest out because of a sprained ankle.

Off to a poor start in the first half of league play, the Ironmen dropped decisions to Berwick, Northwest and Shamokin while winning over Southern, Selinsgrove, Bloomsburg, Shikellamy, Milton and Central. the 6-3 win-loss record was good enough for a third place league finish.

Regrouping for second half play with a completely heeled-Weiss in uniform, the Ironmen avenged a first half loss to Berwick by hammering the 1st half SVL champions 89-61 on the Bulldog's hardwoods. From there on, the Orange and Purple were invincible and completed the second half of league play unbeaten blitzing Southern, Selinsgrove, Northwest, Bloomsburg, Shikellamy, Shamokin, Milton and Central to win the title and set the stage for the special playoff game with Berwick for the overall league championship. The game was won by Danville giving the Ironmen the right to meet Williamsport for the District 4, PIAA, Class A diadem. Unfortunately for the Ironmen, Williamsport proved to be too strong and jolted the Orange and Purple 68-56.

The major bosses from this years club are Captain Dennis Weiss, Pete Dimmick, Mike McCloskey, Rick Seitz, Ron Anderson, Bill Booth, John Buckenberger, Joe Fox, Andy McCullough, Yasukuni Miyamoto, Ralph Page, Gene Snyder and Dennis Washko.

Danville in 1968-69 will not be completely short of talent of probable strong points. Headed by Jim Cero and Vic Marks, the Ironmen will have the services of Charles McWilliams, Reed Messmore, Mike Ryan, Doug Stetler, and Bob Tomcavage.

In addition, an undetermined amount of help will be forthcoming from the ranks of the J V teams.

Although the team started slow, winning just two matches of the first eight, a great improvement was displayed during the last three matches of the season. When the second placed team, Southern Area, was defeated in the final match of the season, predications were made for a banner 68–69 season. During the year a great individual effort was turned in by Captain Chris Ranck when he nailed down the 154 lb. championship in the Williamsport and East Central Tournaments.

The Varsity bowling teams are a natural outgrowth of the intramural programs which commence for the students while they are in Junior High School. During the season, competition is held with girls and boys teams from eight other area schools and each team meets the other in a home and an away game. The climax of the season is the Susquehanna Valley High School Bowling Championship which is held at Danville at the close of the season each year. Upwards of fifteen teams on the whole participate in the tournament.

BOYS' VARSITY: Ron Anderson; Doug Stetler, Captain; Denny Washko; John Foster; Charlie McWilliams.
